Islamic animation Omar & Hana organises ‘Little Huffaz’, international Quran memorisation competition for kids

Kuala Lumpur, 21 October 2020 – Following the success of its first small-scale Quran memorisation campaign ‘Mini Little Huffaz’, Malaysian Islamic animation ‘Omar & Hana’ is back with ‘Little Huffaz’, its first ever virtual Quran memorisation competition for kids. Little Huffaz aims to gather participants from all over the world and instill a love for the noble words of the Quran in children.

The competition is divided into two age categories: 3 to 4 years old and 5 to 8 years old. Each participant is required to select a specific surah according to their age category list to memorise, and then submit a video recording of their recitation through Little Huffaz’s official website or via social media.

The participants will be evaluated by a jury of international judges including Mufti Ismail Menk, Ustaz Yusuf Mansur, Ustaz Don Daniel, Qari Youssef Edghouch, Furqan Fawwaz and Mimi Jamilah in areas of memorisation, fluency, Tajweed, and creativity. Prizes are USD500 and a trophy for first place, USD350 for second place, USD250 for third place, USD150 for fourth place and finally USD100 for fifth place. Each winner will also receive exclusive merchandise and an e-certificate.
Registration for the competition is open from 19th October to 6th November 2020. To register, qualified candidates can visit ohittlehuffaz.com and proceed to the ‘How to Participate’ page to submit their entries.

Participants are required to go through all of the stages below:
